Expressive Arts Therapy Group

For Female Survivors of Sexual Abuse

This 12 session group for survivors of sexual abuse will facilitate self-expression and healing through the mediums of visual art, clay sculpture, paper mache, and other forms of artistic expression. There is no charge for this group and no artistic experience is needed. The group will be provided in a safe, nurturing environment by a qualified art therapist and co-therapist, both of whom are experienced in group process and providing therapy for survivors.
